June 2nd, 2020 - a global survey of 100 of today's most important clay and ceramic artists chosen by leading art world professionals celebrates the revival of clay as a material for contemporary visual artists featuring a wide range of global talent as selected by the world's leading curators, critics and art professionals. Clay and ceramics have in recent years been elevated from craft to high art.

June 4th, 2020 - the man behind the building was an artist, the 42-year-old potter, singer, urban reclamer and son of a Chicago roofer. Theaster Gates, the 45-million-stony island arts bank set to open to the public on October 3rd to mark the vernissage of the city's architectural biennial, is the most ambitious expression yet of Gates's unusual approach to art.
